

Three Day Workshop

on

Understanding the Learner's Psychology & Developing Critical Thinking
Bacha Khan University, Charsadda, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa
(January 09-11, 2018)

A Three Day Workshop on “Understanding the Learner’s Psychology & Developing Critical Thinking” was held with the financial assistance of the Higher Education Commission (HEC), Islamabad from 9-11 January, 2018. A total of 25 faculty members from different teaching departments of the University attended. Prof. Dr. S.M. Saqlan Naqvi, Vice Chancellor, Bacha Khan University, Charsadda inaugurated the workshop. A total of nine sessions were held during the three day proceedings of the workshop. Dr. Mumtaz Fatima Jafari, Resource Person, gave presentations on “Learner’s Psychology, Principles of Learning, Factors Affecting Individuals, Learning Style, Purpose of Education, Diversity of Learners, Importance of the Audience and Principles of Andragogy and Pedagogy. While Dr. Shuja Ahmed, Resource Person, delivered lectures on Logic and Critical Thinking, Informal Fallacies, with special reference to Fallacies of False Generalization, argument against Man and Slippery Slope. The concluding session was chaired by the Registrar of the Bacha Khan University. He stressed upon the participants to make better use of the learning techniques they learned during the workshop. At the end Dr.Akbar Shah Mohmand, Director (ORIC) thanked all the participants and the resource persons for their hard work and very useful presentations.

Photo of the Inaugural session of the Workshop

Dr. Mumtaz Fatima Jafari delivering lecture on Learner's Psychology

Dr. Shuja Ahmad is delivering lecture on Logic and Critical Thinking

Photo of the concluding session of the workshop